Why Muzinich U.S. High Yield Corporate Bond Fund?

Principal Investment Strategies

- ◆ Target a high level of income and long-term capital growth, maintain below-market volatility, and preserve capital
- ◆ Invest the majority of assets in corporate debt securities
- ◆ Muzinich's proprietary research process is particularly credit-intensive, and investment decisions are based on quantitative and qualitative analysis using internally generated financial models and projections
- ◆ Muzinich places particular emphasis on a rigorous and proactive sell discipline to mitigate downside volatility

Research Process

Our process is designed around our relative value lending philosophy

- ◆ Build a deep understanding of the business models of the companies to which we lend
- ◆ Conduct proprietary quantitative analysis and stress test our investment assumptions for difficult environments
- ◆ Consider a bond's liquidity profile when constructing a diversified portfolio
- ◆ Analyze creditworthiness of an investment with focus on cash flow and asset protection

<sup>1</sup>The fund itself has not been rated by an independent rating agency. Credit quality ratings exclude cash and are based on the underlying securities of the fund. Credit quality ratings reflect the first publicly-available rating from surveying, in order, Moody's, Standard & Poor's, and Fitch, converted to the equivalent Moody's major rating category. If none of these agencies rate an asset, "Non-Rated" is assigned. Non-Rated securities do not necessarily indicate low quality. "Other Fixed Income" includes investment vehicles such as fixed-income closed-end funds, exchange traded funds, and mutual funds. "Other Fixed Income" and "Not Rated" represent assets that have not been rated by a Nationally Recognized Rating Agency.

Important Disclosure

Fund sector, and ratings diversification data are excluding cash and cash equivalents and are subject to change and are not recommendations to buy or sell any security.

Duration is a measure of the expected life of a fixed income security that is used to determine the sensitivity of a security's price to changes in interest rates. Duration to Worst is the duration of a bond using the bond's call date or maturity, whichever is more advantageous for the company. Cash Flow is the net amount of cash and cash equivalents moving into and out of a business.

The fund invests in high yield debt instruments which tend to be less liquid than higher quality debt instruments. Diversification does not assure a profit nor protect against loss in a declining market. Mutual fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. Investments in debt securities typically decrease in value when interest rates rise. This risk is usually greater for longer-term debt securities. Investment by the Fund in lower-rated and non-rated securities presents a greater risk of loss to principal and interest than higher-rated securities. Investments in foreign securities involve greater volatility and political, economic and currency risks and differences in accounting methods. These risks are greater for emerging markets. Derivatives involve risks different from, and in certain cases, greater than the risks presented by more traditional investments. These risks are fully disclosed in the prospectus. Floating rate loans may not be fully collateralized and therefore may decline significantly in value. The fund will bear its share of the fees and expenses of investments in underlying funds or ETFs. Shareholders will pay higher expenses than would be the case if making direct investments in underlying funds or ETFs. Because the fund invests in ETFs, it is subject to additional risks that do not apply to conventional mutual funds, including the risks that the market price of an ETF's shares may trade at a discount to its net asset value ("NAV"), an active secondary trading market may not develop or be maintained, or trading may be halted by the exchange in which they trade, which may impact a fund's ability to sell its shares. The fund may make short sales of securities, which involves the risk that losses may exceed the original amount invested. Please note that while the fund's prospectus states that the fund may use leverage, and that it may make short sales of securities, which involve the risk that losses may exceed the original amount invested, the Fund's portfolio managers do not anticipate engaging in either practice.
